

SPACE FOR PERSONALITIES.

Since 1365.

The University of Vienna is internationally renowned for its excellence in teaching and research, and counts more than 7,500 academics from all disciplines. This breadth of expertise offers unique opportunities to address the complex challenges of modern society, to develop comprehensive new approaches, and educate the problem-solvers of tomorrow from a multidisciplinary perspective.

At the Faculty of Earth Sciences, Geography and Astronomy, the University of Vienna seeks to appoint a

Full Professor of Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry

The position:

The professorship should provide visionary leadership in research and teaching within the field of Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry. The professor is expected to lead an active and impactful research program, securing external funding and publishing in top-tier journals. The professor will direct and further develop the core facility Geolotopes featuring clean labs, a Thermal Ionization Mass Spectrometer and a Quadrupole Inductively Coupled Plasma Mass Spectrometer. Close cooperation and interaction with other research groups in the faculty as well as national and international collaborations beyond the faculty are expected. Possible research foci include, among others, element fractionation and mass transfer in the interior and at the surface of the Earth and other planets, magma and/or mantle evolution, formation of mineral deposits, isotope geology, geo- and cosmo-chronology, solar system evolution. The professor will be in charge of developing and teaching advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in Geochemistry and Cosmochemistry and in related areas as well as mentoring junior faculty, postdoctoral researchers, and graduate students.

Your academic profile:

- Doctoral degree/PhD
- Outstanding research achievements, excellent publication and funding record, international reputation
- Proven leadership qualities
- Gender and diversity competence
- Experience in designing and managing large research projects
- Enthusiasm for excellent teaching and supervision at the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral level
- Willingness to take on organisational and administrative responsibilities within the Faculty and/or the University

The University of Vienna expects the successful candidate to acquire, within three years, proficiency in German sufficient for teaching in bachelor's programmes and for participation in university committees.

We offer:

- a dynamic research environment
